

Gale Berkowitz, DrPH

Gale has accumulated over 16 years as a practicing evaluator and twelve years of leadership experience at three different foundations, in the US and Canada, directing organization-wide evolutions of strategy, change management, grantmaking, and learning. Currently Gale is Deputy Director at Behavioral Health Concepts, providing leadership and technical support for reviewing the performance of mental health systems throughout California. Gale is also a regular reviewer for The Foundation Review. Gale completed her Bachelor's degree at Johns Hopkins University and masters and doctorate in Public Health at the University of California, Berkeley.