

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Background of the CalWORKs Project	1
Welfare Reform	1
The CalWORKs Project	2
Overview of the Six-County Case Study	3
Rationale for the Case Study Approach	3
Sources of Information Used in the Six-County Case Study	4
Elements of the Report	6
Chapter Organization and Topics	6
Generic Terms Used in the Report	7
Terms Specific to CalWORKs Used in the Report	7
Chapter I: Context	11
Influence of Demographic Variations on County CalWORKs Programs	11
Effects of Population Size, Percentage on Welfare, and Unemployment Rate	11
Effects of Ethnic Diversity	13
Variations in AFDC/CalWORKs Caseloads in Study Counties	13
Decline in Caseloads	13
Prior Welfare-to-Work Efforts	14
Variations in CalWORKs Planning Process	15
Variations in DSS Approaches to Implementation of CalWORKs	17
Philosophy and Emphasis Placed on AOD/MH/DV Services	17
Variations in DSS Policies on Sanctions and Exemptions	18
Effects of DSS Size and Organizational Structure	20
Welfare Employee Attitudes about CalWORKs and Welfare Reform	21
Continuity of Social Services Staffing in Study Counties	23
Unique Elements that Influence CalWORKs	24
Variations in Interagency Collaborative Relationships in Study Counties	24
Summary	26
Chapter II: Identification of CalWORKs Participants with AOD/MH/DV Barriers to Employment and Referral to Assessment and/or Services	27
Introduction	27
Methods Used to Identify Individuals in Need of Assistance	28
Self-Disclosure	28
Screening	32
The Role of Training in the Identification and Referral Process	37
Variation in Training Emphasis among Study Counties	37
Staff Ratings of Training	39
Impact of Training on Referrals	41
Settings in which Identification Efforts Occur	43
CalWORKs Offices and Personnel	43
Other Sites Frequented by CalWORKs Participants	48
Community Outreach Strategies of AOD/MH/DV Identification	50
“Back Door” Referrals from AOD/MH/DV Service Providers	51
Structure and Use of Co-location	54
Patterns of Staff Co-location	54
Perception of Co-location among Staff	57

Special Issues Regarding CalWORKs Subpopulations	59
Exempt Individuals	59
Sanctioned Individuals	60
Assessment of Individuals Needing AOD/MH/DV Services	61
Characteristics of Assessment in the Six Study Counties	61
Staff Perception of Assessment Processes	65
Summary	68
Chapter III: The Organization of AOD/MH/DV Services	71
The Composition and Role of Designated CalWORKs Integrated Teams	71
Utilization of Existing Networks of Service Providers	75
Development of New or Expanded Services	78
The Relationship of AOD, MH and DV Services to Employment Services	80
Employment Focus to AOD/MH/DV Services Funded by CalWORKs	80
Approaches to Developing Employment Focus in AOD/MH/DV Services	81
Service Structures Not Yet Tried	84
Summary	85
Chapter IV: Client Characteristics and the Impact of AOD/MH/DV Services	87
Sources of Information	87
Numbers of CalWORKs Participants Receiving Services for AOD/MH/DV Issues	88
Issues in Estimating CalWORKs Participants in Need of AOD/MH/DV Services	88
State-level Estimates of the Need for AOD/MH/DV Services among CalWORKs Population	89
Estimates of Need in Alameda County	90
Estimates of AOD/MH/DV Issues by Employment Counselors	91
Distinction between “Direct” and “Indirect” AOD and MH Clients	92
Determining the Number of CalWORKs Participants Actually Served	92
Patterns in Delivery of AOD and MH Services to CalWORKs Participants	93
Percentages of CalWORKs Beneficiaries Receiving AOD and MH Services	95
Characteristics of the Clients Being Served	96
Demographics of Clients Receiving AOD/MH/DV Services	96
Extent of Multiple AOD/MH/DV Problems in AOD/MH/DV Service Population	98
Global Assessment of Functioning (GAF) Ratings of MH Clients	99
County Variations in AOD Problems among Clients being Served	101
Domestic Violence Issues among CalWORKs Participants	101
Effectiveness of the Services Provided in Addressing AOD, MH, and DV Issues	102
Employment Counselors’ Ratings	102
AOD/MH/DV Providers’ Ratings	103
Client Ratings	108
Co-ordination Between CalWORKs and AOD/MH/DV Service Providers	112
Including Services in the WTW Plan to Enhance Communication	112
Perceptions of AOD/MH/DV Providers about CalWORKs Staff	113
Perceptions of CalWORKs Staff about AOD/MH/DV Service Providers	113
Client Satisfaction with Coordination of Services and CalWORKs	114
Summary	115
Chapter V: CalWORKs in Co-ordination with Child Welfare and Workforce Development	119
CalWORKs, Child Welfare and the Role of AOD, MH, DV Services	119
Interaction of CalWORKs and Child Welfare	119
Interactions of AOD/MH/DV Systems with Child Welfare	120

Co-ordination of CalWORKs, AOD/MH/DV Services, and Child Welfare in Study Counties	122
Role of AOD/MH/DV Service Providers in Identifying Child Welfare Issues	124
CalWORKs and Workforce Development Co-ordination and the Role of AOD, MH, DV Services	126
Summary	129
Chapter VI: Funding and Information Systems	131
Funding of AOD, MH and DV Services	131
Information System Issues	132
Tracking and Reporting Issues	133
Mental Health System Information on CalWORKs Participants	134
AOD System Information on CalWORKs Participants	135
DV System Information on CalWORKs Participants	135
Integrated Data Systems	136
Summary	136
Appendix	139