Medicare incentive payments for physician services
Employee placement and retention through state and federal scholarship and loan repayment programs
Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) Program
Rural Health Clinic Certification

The Health Professional Shortage Area (HPSA) or Medically Underserved Area/Medically Underserved Population (MUA/MUP) designation process

The different categories of designations and their benefits

Designation Benefits
- Medicare incentive payments for physician services
- Employee placement and retention through state and federal scholarship and loan repayment programs
- Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) Program
- Rural Health Clinic Certification

Workshop Highlights
- The Health Professional Shortage Area (HPSA) or Medically Underserved Area/Medically Underserved Population (MUA/MUP) designation process
- The process of updating Automatic Facility (FQHC, FQHC-LAL, RHC and IHS) HPSA scores
- The different categories of designations and their benefits

If time permits, one-on-one application assistance will be provided on: November 18, 2016

Workshop materials and activities are funded by a grant from the U.S. Health Resources and Services Administration.