“Drug Medi-Cal Program Certification: Preparing for Certification under the 1115 Waiver Webinar”

Presenter Biography

Jan Tice

Jan Tice is currently a consultant with the California Institute for Behavioral Health Solutions (CIBHS) and provides training and technical assistance for mental health and substance use disorders program throughout California. Jan is also an adjunct professor in the Psychology and Human Services Department at Cabrillo College and California State University East Bay. He has over 28 years of experience in the mental health field which includes work in child welfare, psychiatric hospitals, health and wellness research, substance abuse treatment, and county administration. Jan’s trainings include a blend of personal experience in the field with information from current research and best practices.