

Nancy Peña, Ph.D., Behavioral Health Consultant

Nancy is a former mental health director from Santa Clara County. Since retiring, she offers behavioral health and professional development consultation services to local and state organizations. She currently serves as Co-Director of the CIBHS Leadership Institute, a leadership development program provided by the University of Southern California's Sol Price School of Public Policy and CIBHS. While Director of Mental Health in Santa Clara, she was active in the California Mental Health Directors Association, (now CBHDA), where she served as President of the Board, Co-Chair of the Children's System of Care Committee, and Co-Chair of the Social Justice Advisory Committee. Her passions are social justice, leadership development, and spending time with family and friends.
