Position Description

LCSW “Roving” Clinical Supervisor
Central Region of California

The LCSW Clinical Supervisor will work in conjunction with each of at least two respective county’s mental health Clinical Supervisor to provide clinical supervision to interns and practicum students of that department or program. Travel to each county is required.

Requirements
The qualified applicant must hold a minimum of a Master’s Degree in Social Work from an accredited college or university and a valid Clinical Social Worker license in the State of California. In order to provide clinical supervision the candidate must demonstrate that during two of the last five years he/she has provided psychotherapy or clinical supervision. Additionally, the candidate must have completed 15 contact hours of BBS-approved clinical supervision training. It is preferable that the candidate have at least one year of experience working with rural populations, as well as experience in providing mental health services in a public mental health setting.

Previous clinical experience should include crisis intervention, individual, couple, family and group psychotherapy. The qualified applicant will have experience in assessing, diagnosing and treating a broad range of psychiatric conditions. He or she must be familiar with DSM-IV-R as a means of diagnosis, and be familiar with the DSM-V as it is implemented for diagnosis and billing Medi-Cal in California. Familiarity with the essential elements of the Mental Health Services Act is preferred. Knowledge of social service agencies, state regulations, and professional board standards as is related to consumer treatment, patient rights, and consumer confidentiality is necessary. Previous experience supervising interns is highly desirable. Incumbent must possess excellent interpersonal, verbal and written communication skills.

Pay range: $75.00 per hour for clinical supervision. Travel pay: $50 per hour.

Apply immediately. Open until filled.